Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

Vacation is over and everyone is refreshed and ready for a full schedule of work up until semester exams which begin on January 23 and 24. From the appearance of our students, Santa was good to all. And what a glorious day to begin our New Year! The sun brilliant, and the air crisp.

The Christmas Program presented by the 7th Grade Glee Club was well done. This class deserves much credit for so many songs sung so well. Miss Celestrial Sergeon, music instructor, was in charge of the program. Joe L. Jackson won a portable T.V. This project was sponsored by the Carver-Price Faculty.

On Friday, Dec. 21, the Annual School Party, sponsored by the Student Participation Association, was held in the Gym. The Dunbar High School Rhythm Band furnished music, which was most enjoyable. Bags were distributed to all students and refreshments served.

Friday, January 4, our next home game in basketball will be played against Central High School, Charlotte Court House. The girls play the preliminary game at 7:00 P. M. and the varsity game at 8:00 P. M. This is the first scheduled girls game of the season. Uniforms are scheduled to arrive for the girls' team by the fourth.

Our last varsity and junior varsity game was played against Campbell High School of Rustburg, on Dec. 20. We lost by a score of 55 to 31 in the varsity game. In the Jayvee game, Campbell won by a score of 47 to 31.

Our next game is January 8, at Staunton. The next home game is January 11, against Susie Gibson, of Bedford.

Competitive College Entrance Examination schedules have been received for students in the graduating class. These exams carry very valuable scholarship awards.

Until next week, our thought:

"Look well into thyself; there is a source which will always spring up if thou wilt always search there."
